

From: Anna Drechsler

Sent: Friday, April 07, 2006 2:47 PM

To: Public Hearing

Subject:

Dear Sir,

Wal-Mart have dominated many small communities, putting out of business local enterprises, stores, shops, nurseries, turning owners and entrepreneurs into servitude workers with ridiculously low wages and no health insurance. It is very bad idea to give this business-eating monster more power by letting them also control finances and do banking. Please protect local entrepreneurs and communities. They pay taxes and boost local economy.